Aide In Wasatch Retires Monday

HEBER CITY.—William J. Heber was an instructor in date.

Bond, Wasatch County, commencing for the past 10 years, will retire from this post Monday.

Elmo A. Jacobson (R) incumbent county commissioner and Dean L. Hickman (D) will be sworn in at 9 a.m. by Wayne C. Whitling, county clerk.

Mr. Bond has been actively engaged in public services for the past 23 years. He started his teaching career while still attending the Wasatch High School in Heber City.

At the age of 19, he was called on a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to Texas and Oklahoma. Along with his proselyting, he taught school for three years in the mission field. On returning home, he taught school in Midway, Wasatch County, for a year.

He graduated from the Utah State Agricultural College and during World War I, enlisted and received the rank of sergeant in the 98th Balloon Company at Camp John Wise, Tex.

After his release from the Air Force, he re-entered the field of education. He was an instructor in woodwork at the University of Utah, taught in Richmond, Cache County, was a principal at Coalville, and Wasatch County High School, Heber City, and superintendent of schools at Duchesne for 13 years.

Mr. Bond has been a prominent farmer and dairyman all his life and has been active in many civic and church activities. He is a member of the Lions Club and the local Chamber of Commerce. He is the father of four sons and daughters.
